

A note from our Pastor –

First and foremost, I want to thank all of you for having faith in me. I am humbled and honored to serve you. Remember what I have been saying, it is not me but God that has put me on this journey. You all have welcomed me like I have been here for a lifetime. We have to give Bea and Pastor Cy credit also because they had a hand in all this.

As you all have found out, I like to have fun and laugh. I will try to keep it down on Sundays, the key word being “try”. Even Jesus liked to have fun. I just don't want to change myself into a “stuffed shirt”. Quite frankly, I don't think that could happen (lol).

I am going to leave you with a couple of Scriptures.

Job:8:21 - He will yet fill your mouth with laughter and your lips with shouts of joy.

How is it that this book of the Bible assures us that God fills us with laughter and shouts of joy? The key word is “yet”. Sometimes we are not joyful; “yet” there is hope that soon we will be laughing again and shout a joyful noise. If you are in that slump right now hang on to “yet”. Joy will be restored. If not, stop in the Sunday morning service and see if God and I can help you out.

1 Peter 2:2 - Like newborn babies, crave pure spiritual milk, so that by it you may grow up in salvation.

Make some time every day to be alone, read the Bible, think about what you have read, and pray like you never prayed before. I will guarantee you God will bless you in those times. He will grow your faith and prepare you for the future in this earthly world.

Have a blessed day and bring a friend Sunday, you never know what God has in store for us. Nor do I.
